Doctrine & Covenants Seminary Reading

Reading Requirement Changes: To receive credit, you need to read in the Doctrine & Covenants/Joseph Smith History at least 75 percent of the semester calendar days. This change is to emphasize the importance for you to develop a habit of daily scripture study that will bring you closer to Jesus Christ. We encourage you to set a personal goal to read the entire text for the scripture course, but it is no longer a requirement for course credit. Below, shade in each day you read. You can also shade what sections you read below. During the semester you can only miss reading an average of 1.5 days per week without making it up.

Doctrine & Covenants Seminary Reading

President Russell M. Nelson taught, “As we seek to be disciples of Jesus Christ, our efforts to hear Him need to be ever more intentional. It takes conscious and consistent effort to fill our daily lives with His words, His teachings, His truths. ... Daily immersion in the word of God is crucial for spiritual survival, especially in these days of increasing upheaval. As we feast on the words of Christ daily, the words of Christ will tell us how to respond to difficulties we never thought we would face” (“Hear Him,” April 2020 general conference).
